Good Afternoon:

Mr. Friedman returned my call.....his concerns (oversight costs and our response to the phone conf. / agenda) were too lengthy to describe in this e-mail and he asked that I speak with John and Steve. The phone call was nearly a half-hour to the minute: 12:18 to 12:48. I did not say much at all. I told him that I won't bill him for this. I don't take a lunch break anyway so I don't mind. Typically, I keep a daily log of what I work on per case. If it is determined that I spent too much time on the project then I don't mind giving back time to DEP.

I ended the phone call on a positive note and I offered to look up anything in the case files for Mr. Friedman and faxing to him instead of him conducting an OPRA review.
